Lítera

Cedar tree thick, sunset-red exercising, toe-touching when the wind blows.
A handsome young man in an extravagant suit asking questions.

Ceceil Monczunski
Grade 9

Dead oak trees
immense, blackened,
bent and ashed.
An old man inching away -- a limp, almost motionless shadow.

Craig Cranna
Grade 9

Oak tree Dark, lonely, grey breathtaking giant.
Magically, branches and leaves sway to the music of the wind.

Cindy Rodger
Grade 9

Weeping willow Tall, green, heavy, brown.
Sad body teasing the earth.
A child dancing slowly
as the wind blows
in the evening light.

Susan Mudalier
Grade 9

ry Art

Spruce tree
an enormous green monster moving swiftly in the wind a hunchback that is alone in the city's gloom

Patsy Marquis
Grade 9

Tranquility is light blue
It tastes like cool water
It sounds like classical music
It smells like mountain air
It looks like an eagle soaring
It makes me feel calm.

Fred Mudalier
Grade 8

YOU AND I

Comfort me,
Place your arms around me,
But don't shelter me
From reality.
Realize that I must learn
To stand alone
For we are individuals,
You and I.

Lynne Mitchell
Room 25
